Central Pacific Railroad

(Correspondence San Francisco Bulletin

FROM CISCO TO THE SUMMIT

More snow The air grows keener and the wind has a sharper sting Gangs of men are at work along the track "ballasting" cutting timber, etc The wrecks of shanties crushed by the winter snows are frequently met Sometimes the roof is simply stove in, sometime the entire structure is reduced to a chaotic mass of boards and shingles The avalanches, when they come down to visit their neighbors below, generally take the short cut and do not turn out even for the servants of the Central Pacific Railroad Thirteen and one quarter miles from Cisco we enter the great tunnel which pierces the summit of the Truckee Pass a work which formed a fitting crown to one of the greatest achievements in practical science of the age It is 1,659 feet long 19 feet high and 16 feet wide It is cut through a solid granite rock and had the company been compelled to rely on the ordinary blasting agencies it is doubtful if it would have been completed by this time but by means of nitro glycerine the work was greatly facilitated and the time consumed in cutting was comparatively short Persons residing in the neighborhood describe the blasts as something terrific

THE SUMMIT

We at last reach the Summit, 105 miles from Sacramento and 7,043 feet above the level of the sea We need barely add that this is the highest altitude ever attained in railroad construction Figures are often poor symbols to illustrate ideas the magnitude of the work and the brilliant results achieved will be better understood when we state that the elevation attained on the summit is greater—that railway trains actually pass at a point of greater altitude than any of the passes of the Alps with the exception of that of St Bernard The height of the Mont Cenis Pass is 6,773 that of St Gothard 6,890, that of the Simplon 6,578 that of St Bernard, 7,663 As regards the difficulties to be overcome those on the Central Pacific are without parallel so far as we know The most brilliant triumph of railroad engineering in Europe is the road constructed over the Semmering Alp between Vienna and Gratz Austria The ascent commenced at Gloggnitz, 1,3..8 feet above the level of the sea, and the highest elevation attained is only 2,893 feet above the sea level The entire distance of mountain grade is only 25 miles, and the snow is never troublesome even in mid winter The Central Pacific passes over 80 miles of mountain and reaches over twice the altitude

THE SNOW PROBLEM—SNOW SHEDS

There is no doubt that the problem of the deep snows of winter is an ugly one and requires for its successful solution the utmost energy, pluck and skill of the Company Last winter was one of almost unprecedented severity, and the detentions were doubtless more frequent and perplexing than usual, but that snow falls to very great depths and forms enormous drifts—drifts that no engine, that hardly the snow plow can cut through—cannot be denied The Company, accepting the fact, have set to work to overcome the difficulty, and are perfectly confident that they will be able to succeed They have hit upon a system of sheds which they are erecting over the cuttings and other exposed points They consist of heavy timber frameworks, with pointed gable roofs covering the entire track These sheds are much stronger than ordinary frame dwellings, and look as if they could withstand almost any pressure of snow Nearly 40 miles of the track will require to be thus covered, including an amount of labor and expense that would be disheartening were it not that much greater difficulties have been overcome The quantity of lumber required for this system of sheds will be enormous Not less than 12 sawmills, most of them worked by steam, are run night and day on the other side of the summit employing, we should suppose, in all, nearly 2,000 men, and yet they do not work up to the needs of the Company In a few weeks 28 mills will be running It is estimated that it will require not less than 800,000 feet of lumber to construct a mile of sheds So great is the demand that the country on both sides of the track is being rapidly denuded of its forests

JOHN CHINAMAN AS A RAILROAD BUILDER

John Chinaman is ubiquitous You see him everywhere—on every mile—on almost every foot of road—from Alta to Reno His bizarre figure greets you at every station, at the mouth of every tunnel, on the side of every causeway and cutting in the most perilous places—where the snow is deepest and the avalanche thickest—you see him high up on the mountain tops chopping wood and you see him down in the deep gulleys plying his shovel or his pick, you see him at his task in the gray of the early dawn and the gloom of the evening twilight There is not a lazy bone in his body and he is not too fastidious to do the shabbiest kind of work provided he is paid for it He works hard and eats but little does his own cooking washes and mends his own clothes He is handy patient persistent faithful to his employers and seldom refuses to do what he is told He has developed such aptitude for certain kinds of work has made himself so essential an item in the great work of building the road over the mountain and has been withal so true, steadfast and inoffensive that all, even the common day laborers speak well of and we believe, generally treat him kindly If John is not very largely stocked with ideas he has the imitative instinct largely developed As a tunnel cutter he was especially invaluable During the progress of the great Summit Tunnel there was a strike in some of the Nevada mines and a number of Cornishmen came up to work for the Company But it was found that the Chinamen could do considerably more work and stand the fatigue and foul air of underground work much better The Cornishmen tried it awhile but concluded to leave the work of boring through granite mountains to the more adaptable Celestial and went away in disgust

THE GREAT RACE—OUR STAKE IN IT

The great race between the rival companies approaches its climax For the next three months no less than six miles of track a day will be laid The distance between the two termini grows rapidly less, and by another twelvemonth the band of iron that belts a continent and makes us masters of the trade of the Orient will be completed The stake of California—the stake of San Francisco particularly in the struggle between the two lines can hardly be over estimated

TUNNELS

Between Sacramento and Reno are fifteen tunnels with an aggregate length of 6,2.. feet They are all cut through the hardest kind of rock and justly rank among the greatest achievements of railroad engineering We have already spoken of the great tunnel at the summit ... so at Cold stream and Pollard's Hill are hardly inferior as monuments of patient labor and successful skill At the latter the work of blasting was especially extensive The heaviest "blasts" threw enormous masses of rock into the valley below and made a residence in the vicinity anything but comfortable A story is told and vouched for by Mr ... proprietor of the Donner Lake House that one rock landed near the lake with such violence that its bottom was buried 18 feet below the surface of the earth It is stated that the aggregate cost of constructing this series of tunnels was $1 ... 000

PUSHING EASTWARD

The great work is being rapidly pushed to the eastward The next few months will witness results that we venture to predict will astonish even the most sanguine The track was completed on Saturday night to Wadsworth ... miles ... Reno, and in a short time another section of fifty or sixty miles will be formally opened

The tide of feeling in England sets more and more strongly toward Democracy Already the Hereditary Peerage is acknowledged to be in danger The uselessness of the House of Lords as a political body is freely discussed the fact being admitted that the peers meet in hardly sufficient numbers to form a small debating club The English mind which is emancipating itself slowly begins to ask What is the use of this hereditary nobility The political tendencies of the country begin to alarm the conservatives

Fred Douglass said at the Equal Rights Convention a few years ago the only luxury he enjoyed was a whole seat in a car Even that luxury he did not have now The other night he was riding muffled up in his blanket when somebody asked him for half his seat He stuck out his head and replied I'm a nigger I don't care who the d—l you are I want a seat The people are conquering their prejudices

An Incident in the Life of James Buchanan

The following reminiscence of James Buchanan appears in the State Guard of Harrisburg, (Pa

Our editorial reference to the historical facts in the life of James Buchanan which appeared after the decease of that well known statesman gave offense to a class who can never bear the truth without an apprehension that it may do injury to themselves or their friends We stated that Buchanan was entirely absorbed in admiration and awe (call it by what term one may) of the Southern people. He regarded the South as peopled with a superior class of men who could do no wrong if actually guilty of what a majority of men might consider wrong as being above and beyond censure We have an incident to illustrate the feeling of Buchanan on this subject

His nomination for President occurred immediately after the ruffian Brooks had made a deadly assault upon Charles Sumner The whole country rung with execration of the villain who perpetrated the act while colleges and societies in the North and West passed resolutions condemning Brooks's bloody deed and congratulating Sumner on his escape Among the institutions which passed these resolutions was a Normal School in Lancaster county

Buchanan had just returned from Europe, and was a candidate for President. Professor Wickersham then at the head of the Normal School of Lancaster the students of which passed these resolutions called on Buchanan to invite him to be present at the examination of the students of that institution The invitation was designed to be one of deferential courtesy Only the presence of Buchanan was asked as an encouragement to a class of young men then about graduating The moment the students of the Normal School were mentioned, the peculiar blandness with which Buchanan (for he was then a candidate for a high office, had welcomed his visitor to Wheatland left his face to give place for a stern frown "May I ask, sir whether the students of your school did not pass resolutions condemning Brooks for his encounter with Charles Sumner?" I believe the students of our institution did hold a meeting replied Professor Wickersham "and passed resolutions of such a character, but the fact is in no way one for which the faculty are responsible, any more than if a like number of men living near the institution had passed similar resolutions

"Ah! yes very likely," broke in Buchanan, but you forget the people of the South are so sensitive, so alive to their honor and their rights as men that if I were to visit your school they would construe it into an approval of the action of your students censuring the course of Brooks against Sumner

This was uttered with all the courtly blandness for which Buchanan was distinguished But Professor Wickersham was equal to the position in which he so unexpectedly found himself He had gone to Wheatland the bearer of a courteous invitation from men who were anxious to do honor to one of the first gentlemen of the nation, and he had been met by the crafty politician who, failing to appreciate the well meant respect offered him, declined that invitation in deference to what he considered policy in an election campaign, when the acts of a would be murderer could not be condemned without the fear of losing Buchanan votes, particularly if he associated with those who looked with horror on blood

"Mr Buchanan," said Professor Wickersham, we did not come to invite you to participate in our Commencement as politicians, our school is not a political organization, though as men we never shrink from condemning brutality like that of Brooks Nevertheless, sir, I would not have you compromise yourself, and I therefore withdraw my invitation" This withdrawal at once chased the frown from the face of Buchanan, who at once again became the courtly dispenser of the hospitality of Wheatland.

The People's Man

(From the Springfield (Ill.) Journal.

General Grant, though not a politician, has a parenthetical way of stating great truths and sententious facts which is remarkable

As early as the second year of the war, in a letter to Mr Washburne, he writes "I never was an Abolitionist—not even what could be called anti slavery—but I try to judge fairly and honestly, and it became patent to my mind in the early part of the rebellion that the North and South could never live in peace with each other except as one nation and that without slavery"

And again "As anxious as I am to see peace established I would not, therefore, be willing to see any settlement until this question is settled"

In his general order to his soldiers after the capture of General Lee in referring to the enforcement of the emancipation proclamation, he calls slavery the cause and pretext of the rebellion"

In his famous letter to the President, while acting as Secretary of War ad interim, he says "I stated that the law was binding upon me, constitutional or not until set aside by the proper tribunal a doctrine that will do to stand by.

In his testimony before the Impeachment committee he says "I have always been attentive to my own duties and tried not to interfere with other people's" And again, "I never was in favor of general amnesty until the time should come when it would be safe to give it."

In his correspondence with President Johnson in reference to the removal of General Sheridan from the district of Louisiana, he says "This is a Republic where the will of the people is the law of the land I beg that their voice may be heard."

In his speech to the committee appointed to inform him of his nomination he said "If chosen President, I shall have no policy of my own to enforce against the will of the people"

In his letter accepting the Republican nomination he says "Purely administrative officers should always be left to execute the will of the people I have always respected that will and always shall

These are only samples of General Grant's manner of expressing great truths, culled at random from the files, but they are "apples of gold in pictures of silver," and show to the people the manner of man he is

John Paul thus records his impressions of Wendell Phillips

Wednesday evening I attended a meeting of the Anti slavery Society at Steinway Hall and had the pleasure of hearing Wendell Phillips speak Am I wrong in challenging the world to produce his equal as an orator? Decidedly I ... think he is the most graceful speaker ever I listened to His presence and his voice are perfect and the wonderful play of his wit the readiness of his illustrations the aptness of his thought, the scathingness of his sarcasm the bitterness of his invective are beyond comparison or parallel However unexpectedly called on, whatever may be the emergencies of the occasion there is no flurry no bungling about his work The blade springs from its sheath as if by magic and with the glitter and delicate play of the rapier and all the great sweep of the broadsword swift and sure as that of the matador it goes to its mark Every sentence is as sound and perfect as a star no after polish could amend them

The Philadelphia Press says the political condition of Pennsylvania is represented as better than at any period since Lincoln's election There is an evident determination among the Republican candidates not to jeopard the cause by personal difficulties or selfish aspirations. The canvass promises to be most thorough, and when the campaign opens the best speakers will take the field If under such circumstances the rebel Democracy carry Pennsylvania, they will be more fortunate than they have ever been before

The Concord (N H) Monitor of the 22d says that, at the last State election, "instead of a majority of 2,598, Governor Harriman, if only the honest vote of the State had been cast, would have had a clear majority of more than 9,000 The evidence is at hand that three thousand fraudulent votes were cast for John G Sinclair The returns in the Secretary's office show that in the 101 Democratic towns in the State, they returned seven hundred more votes than they had ratable polls, while in the 129 Republican towns, the number of votes returned was 2,127 less than the number of ratable polls,"

Seymour made a speech at Cooper Institute, New York on the 25th June, in which he gave the Pendleton theory and the doctrine of the present Democratic platform some hard hits He said "The labor of the West puts its savings, to a large degree, into ... which are tax-burdened, The labor of the East puts its savings ... savings banks, life insurance, or in other forms of monied investment The number of depositors in the State of New York is ... $60,000, and in the city they number more than one-third of the population This will make the number of depositors in the Union more than 1,500,000 All the funds of savings banks and life insurance companies are not put in ... they hold an amount which ... or upon them, if the bonds are not paid in coin, or if they are paid in debased paper If we add the trusts for widows and orphans, we find that 2,500,000 persons are interested in government bonds who are not capitalists, and who are compulsory owners at present prices ... NEGRO EXTINCTION.—The following, from the Hartford Times, is going the rounds of the Copperhead news ... and causes ... a ... thrill of delight

"Bishop Atkinson, of North Carolina, in an address delivered last Sunday evening in Christ's Church in this city relating chiefly to church matters and missionary work made one statement which is calculated to arrest the attention of every thinking person regardless of sects, creeds or political views. He was referring to the rapid extinction of the negroes in the South, and, in illustration of the state of things even in North Carolina he spoke of a negro town opposite or near Newbern, consisting of 10,000 inhabitants In that town said the Bishop one coffin dealer alone filled orders for 2,500 coffins in a single year."

This is a fact of terrible significance in its relation to the condition and destiny of the ... race. The truths for which no amount of statement or reasoning could gain a hearing when presented in the way of warning against the sudden liberation of these ignorant and helpless people are likely now to force themselves upon public attention by the irresistible power of facts It is known that of the four million who were liberated by the war fully one-quarter perished miserably within a year and that the death rate among them has since that time very largely exceeded the rate of increase in all parts of the South"

[illegible] PLATFORM.

The Copp[illegible] Platform "recognizes as the consequence of the late civil war, the extinction of slavery and of the heresy of secession." This is a step in advance of the declaration of the platform of four years ago which pronounced the war a "failure." As the Democratic party presumes in its platform to "demand" certain things, let the people ask themselves how much the country is indebted to that party for the "extinction of slavery and the heresy of secession?—how much, in short, the country owes that party for its preservation, and what right such a political organization has to "demand" anything in the name of the country?

The platform further demands an "amnesty for all political offenses." Impudent as this [illegible] it is natural enough. A large portion of the Democratic party have made themselves criminals by unjustifiable rebellion, and the New York Convention naturally desired the removal of these disabilities so that the party would no longer be deprived of the aid of a large share of its voters. The Democratic party realizes the disadvantage of having one third or one half of its voters [illegible] for crimes committed against the country. Hence the need [illegible]. Hence the demand for [illegible] as a party measure. [illegible] the taxation of Government bonds. This is an artifice to gull [illegible] of the party. The [illegible] should therefore be devoted to building up a home market for Oregon products and [illegible] with [illegible] that are [illegible] new channels of industry may be continually opened, the objects of labor diversified, and profit found in all the branches of industry [illegible] the State will sustain. FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, July 14.—A report has reached here that the U. S. steamer Suwanee was wrecked near Fort Rupert on the eighth inst. No particulars [illegible].

At Burrard's Inlet to-day, a seaman on board the ship Chelsea, now loading at Moody's mill, had one of his legs badly crushed between two large timbers.

The machinery for Moody's new steam saw mill had arrived and it was expected that everything would be completed and the mill in operation within sixty days. Moody's two mills together will be able to turn out over one hundred thousand feet of lumber per day.

Wreck of the Steamer Suwanee.

VICTORIA, July 14.—By the arrival of Capt. Cr[illegible], of this city, a passenger on the U. S. steamer Saranac, here on the 7th inst. for Alaska, we learn of the total wreck of that vessel on the morning of the 9th by running on an unknown rock in Shadwell Passage, twenty five miles north of Fort Rupert. A large hole was stove in her nearly amidships, causing her to sink, but not entirely under water. Capt. Cooper thinks a portion of her stores above water may be saved, and probably her guns. No lives lost. H. B. M. steamer Sparrowhawk was spoken the day following the ship's wreck, bound up, and would, in a few hours, reach the vessel and render assistance. The U. S. steamer Pensacola, Admiral Thatcher, arrived at Port Townsend yesterday, and is daily expected at this port.

Calling the annual product of whisky 100,000,000 gallons, the Chicago Tribune thus estimates the revenue which could be collected at different rates of taxation: At one dollar per gallon, one-third, or $33,000,000. At 75 cents, one-half, or $37,500,000. At 60 cents, three-fourths, or $45,000,000. At 50 cents, nine-tenths, or $45,000,000.

It is not reported that there were any sailors present at the so-called Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention which attended the Copperhead gathering at New York after the manner of a side-show at a circus. The probable reason is smallness of the late Confederate navy, and that Semmes, its only representative, had other engagements.

Many of the Oregon Democrats who will vote for Frank Blair were run out of Missouri early in the war when he was making that State too hot to hold rebels. It is no wonder their voices stick in their throats when they attempt to hurrah for him as the "reg'lar Dimocratic" candidate.

There will be a meeting of the Union Central Committee of Washington county at Hillsboro on the 25th July, at one o'clock P. M. All the members of the Committee are requested to be in attendance.

A new ten stamp quartz mill, the property of the Pioneer Company, has been taken to Warren's Diggings. It will be put at work immediately.

It is suggested that Grant wrote too many letters during the war. The one he penciled at Fort Donelson lost him Buckner's esteem and vote.

From Camp Harney.

The Boise Statesman publishes the following:

Lieut. W. J. Henderson, 1st U. S. Cavalry, arrived on Tuesday from Camp Harney, from whom we learn some additional particulars concerning operations against the Indians. He was present at the council between Gen. Crook and the Indians, and is of opinion that it is the intention of the Indians to establish terms of peace with the whites. Gen. Crook told Wee-ah-wee-wa that he wished him and his Indians all to understand that if they made a treaty of peace and agreed to live upon a reservation, it must be by their own free will and consent—that he (the General) was not anxious to make peace at all—he could kill them all in two years more, and the Indians could do just as they pleased, fight till they were all dead, or yield now. Wee-ah-wee-wa replied that he was tired of fighting the "Bostons;" that he began to fight them four years ago with more warriors than he could count. Now he had but a few left and the whites have got nearly all his land. Gen. Crook has started on a raid against the Pitt River Indians. To test the sincerity of the Snakes he called on the chief for ten of his best warriors to act as guides and scouts—four times the number volunteered at once. Lieut. H. thinks there will be no more fighting with the Snake Indians if the matter is judiciously arranged. We append the following extracts from a private letter from Capt. Nickerson, dated Camp Harney, July 1st:

General Crook met Wee-ah-wee-wa and his principal warriors at this post and held a council yesterday, the result of which was an agreement that he could establish his headquarters in the vicinity of Castle Rock Mountain, and his Indians would be allowed, (on condition that all the property they have stolen be given up and to commit no more depredations upon settlers or parties passing through their country, nor allow other strolling bands not now in, to do so,) to gain a legitimate living by hunting and fishing—and that so long as they regard their agreement they shall not be molested.

The General is very anxious that the settlers, miners, etc., in and passing through their country shall understand that on their part much depends whether peace is permanent or not. It should be understood that this peace is the result of much hard labor—has cost many lives and should be preserved if possible. Wee-ah-wee-wa, Pas-ho-gos and several minor chiefs with about fifty warriors were present at the council, and there was every indication that they are tired of war and are ready for peace.

We return to-day to Camp Warner. From there the General is about to commence a campaign against the Pitt River country. Ten of the late hostile warriors accompany us as allies. I send you this hasty note as I thought you would like to know facts, and I regret that I cannot give you more of a detailed account.

A Protest.

The New York World having recently declared that "the late civil war was a necessary exercise of constitutional power to put down a rebellion," the Cincinnati Enquirer, the principal representative of the Democratic press of Ohio, protests in language which shows how impossible it is for the mass of that party to cut loose from the doctrines of Copperheadism. It says:

> There are thousands of Democrats—very honest men—men whose faith has been tried in fire—who do not, will not, cannot accept this decision. The party cannot—at least as we conceive it—afford to bid adieu to these Democrats; to invite them to leave its ranks, drum them out of its camp, and inscribe upon its banners a sentence which condemns their opinions, and places them in the light of traitors and criminals. We do not understand how a Democratic candidate can hope to be elected without the assistance of that body of sincere men who opposed the war from conviction, and whose convictions have been rather confirmed than unsettled by the events of the times, and the persecutions they have undergone. Loose talk, boasting, and ante-election gasconade is one thing and facts another. Presidents have to be elected with votes; and to ask men to sustain a proposition which is abhorrent alike to their convictions and their feelings, is not the way to secure their assistance.

CHICKERING & SONS' EXPERIENCE WITH THE EXTINGUISHER.
CHICKERING & SONS' FACTORY,
Boston, December 16, 1867.
U. S. FIRE EXTINGUISHER Co.
Gentlemen: Convinced of the efficacy of the "Fire Extinguisher" manufactured by you, we have had [illegible] of them placed in various parts of our Factory, for several months.
By a singular accident this afternoon, a fire caught in our Moulding machine room. Water was thrown upon it with little effect, and when the "Extinguishers" were brought to bear, a large pile of shavings was completely on fire, threatening destruction to our entire Factory.
In less than three minutes from the time the alarm [illegible] from the three "Extinguishers" used were first directed on the fire, it was entirely extinguished.
From this experience we are more than ever [illegible] of the ability of the "Extinguishers," and [illegible] recommend all manufacturers or others who have property where there is a risk from fire, to have them on hand and ready for use.
Respectfully yours,
CHICKERING & SONS.

BREADSTUFFS MARKET [illegible] 1868 —All growers of and dealers in grain understand perfectly well that the price of breadstuffs for the year must depend upon the supply [illegible] those countries to which we [illegible] or may export. It is worth while therefore to learn in advance what we may of the crop prospects everywhere what countries will be buyers and what sellers

At home it is understood that we will have at least an average crop of wheat and will, therefore as last year [illegible] surplus to be sold somewhere. The [illegible] estimates we have seen put the California [illegible] at an increase of nearly 50 per cent over that of last year or, say 17,000 000 bushels We have for two or three years sold more or less to New York City but the crops this year of the Atlantic States are likely to be fully equal to all wants and it is to be feared that we must drop New York from our list of buyers The latest [illegible] from Europe quite generally represent the [illegible] of cereals as excellent—better than in any year since 1862 Only a few small districts are reported [illegible] short The prospects are so flattering and the large yield so certain that wheat has gone down at Liverpool [illegible] 13s in January to 13s 2d in July It is already [illegible] that Europe will not buy this year of America [illegible] there is reported a deficiency in the [illegible] crop lately harvested of nearly a million and a [illegible], but it is not probable that the Australians will be buyers to that amount, as the crops of corn [illegible] are reported excellent. If Oregon and California [illegible] disposing of say a quarter of a million [illegible] and New Zealand, the year's exports to that [illegible] will be quite up to reasonable expectations At the latest dates from Melbourne, wheat was ruling at [illegible] bushel The trade setting in toward China and [illegible] to furnish an outlet for a considerable amount of breadstuffs At the prices ruling the last year, the [illegible] of those countries were free [illegible] and should prices go no higher they will buy at it more [illegible] during the coming year. In the event of [illegible], they will get and cannot buy much unless [illegible] within the best of rice, which it is likely to do this year The South American States, which have [illegible] to take anything worth mention this year [illegible] It will thus be seen that all [illegible] point to lower prices than [illegible] for the last two [illegible] markets open to us are so few and limited in their demands that [illegible] this year without actual loss to the producer

WALLA WALLA ITEMS —We clip the subjoined items from the Walla Walla [illegible] of the 10th inst. Hon Alvan Fl[illegible] writes that he is informed by the Department that the mails will be carried to and from Walla Walla this [illegible] a year, as they were last year In other words that there is to be no change. The report that the Boise mail was to be carried via Canyon City seems to be a [illegible]. FOR NEGRO SUFFRAGE —The following from the Charleston (S C) Mercury of June 17th will do for the consideration of those Democrats of the North who are invincibly opposed to sharing the suffrage with the 'servile races' under any circumstances

The white race has no political power yet in many parts of the South they have pledged to the negroes qualified suffrage as soon as they possess the power. They say to the negroes, it is our right to determine this matter, and when we have the power we will give you qualified suffrage They can continue to make such pledges It is true they cannot pledge the State but when the State is free to make a constitution for the white race, to whom it belongs the question of qualified suffrage will be a fair subject for consideration In our opinion it will be granted by at least a majority of the Southern States—perhaps by the whole of them None but Radicals in the South support universal negro suffrage The Democrats support qualified negro suffrage in the way we state. What is there to hinder them from pursuing the same course in the Presidential election whether the National Democratic Convention condemns or shirks universal negro suffrage?

IRRETRIEVABLE DEFEAT The New York World, talking back to Johnson's organ, the Washington Intelligencer says

The present dissatisfaction of the Intelligencer is caused by the recommendation of the World to treat the negro suffrage as a dead issue in Federal politics The bearings of such a recommendation on the prospects of President Johnson naturally enough makes it so distasteful to his personal organ If we were to run him we should be obliged to run him on that issue with which he is so completely identified and on which with the most honest and praiseworthy intentions, he has led the Conservatives to irretrievable defeat

Copperhead Honors Declined by a Soldier.

CANTON, STARK COUNTY, O., May 26.

Editor Cincinnati Gazette: A late State Convention at Columbus has appointed me as a delegate from the Seventeenth District, to the "National Conservative Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention," to be held in the city of New York on the 4th of July. Will you help to relieve me from the results of such unmerited insult by permitting me, through you, to say that I do not propose to attend that Convention? I am not and never have been in sympathy with the objects it seeks to accomplish. I have not yet forgotten the cause for which "our bravest fell," and am not so objectionably generous that I am ready to give up the fruits of victory so hardly won. I can not but ask myself of what mean thing I have been guilty, that I should be the recipient of the praise implied by such appointment, at the hands of men who have deserted the flag under which they once fought.

The cool impudence of the insult was not fully appreciated by me until, on reading the proceedings, it appeared I was appointed an advisory member. Let me overcome my distaste to touch pitch and be defiled, for a moment, by accepting that advisory position.

I advise that if there be such scarcity of material among the late Federal soldiery of Ohio, that the Convention is forced to go into Radical ranks to select representatives, that it goes into one of our "erring sister States" and makes choice of some who wore the gray to respond on the 4th day of July, at New York, when the roll of the Ohio delegation is called.

I advise that the rebel Forrest—the modern Herod, who massacred the innocents at Fort Pillow, and whose name was cheered by Conservative Democratic soldiers, in Convention assembled, at Cleveland, would be a proper man to represent Conservatism.

I advise that, for "the cultivation of fraternal feeling" and complete forgetfulness of the late "little unpleasantness," there be a union of those three Conservative societies, the White Boys in Blue, the Knights of the Golden Circle, and the Ku-Klux Klan.

I advise that Democratic Conservatism form its ranks this fall to make the fight against Grant and Colfax under the old color, "the stars and bars," and under the old leaders, the rebel Gen [illegible] Jeff Davis.

Lastly [illegible] I [illegible] to continue the [illegible] and vote and work for [illegible]

Political [illegible] have ever been a favorite [illegible] with Mr. Chase. His first prominent [illegible] in Ohio in the winter of 1847-'8. A Senator was to be chosen by a Legislature in which a handful of Free-Soilers held the balance of power in each branch. Mr. Chase, at that time a prominent lawyer at Cincinnati and who had been for years identified with the Liberty and Free Soil parties, betook himself to the Capital, and there initiated and successfully carried through an intrigue by which the Free-Soilers and Democrats swept the field. In consideration of electing Chase to the Senate, and of the repeal of the Black Laws of Ohio, the Democracy were rewarded with all State offices in the Legislative gift. The Compact was fulfilled by both parties, and the Democracy obtained control of the State, sent Chase to the Senate and repealed the laws against the blacks. The success of this intrigue was entirely due to the personal efforts of Chase, who exhibited a tenacity and unscrupulous directness of purpose which Ohio politicians can never forget. It remains to be seen whether his new intrigue will succeed so well.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel," is a direct infringement of and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel," and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject, from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does, and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel, does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all. He has no right to use those two tiers of buckets, whether alone or with a third, or any other number of tiers added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN.

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.

A. MYERS.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary.

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, or [illegible] patient's [illegible]. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call [illegible] of his ability to treat diseases that he [illegible].

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 282.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 282 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy4d4ptf

None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.

Consultation Free.
